

FUTA NEWS

OLUWATOSIN IS MISS FUTA 2017

OLUWATOSIN OLAIYA of the department of Information Technology, School of Sciences has emerged winner of the 2017 edition of Miss FUTA beauty pageant. For emerging Miss FUTA 2017 Oluwatosin went home with N150, 000, expensive gifts, and endorsements ALEENIA BONNY from school of Management Technology, Department of Business Administration clinched the second position and got N100, 000, expensive gifts and endorsement while KOFOWOROLA AISHAT YUSSUF, from School of Environmental Technology, Department of Building, came third and was rewarded with 50,000 and other expensive gifts. The beauty pageant was organized to bring out the potential in female students and test their knowledge of their environment and culture. The Grand finale came up on Friday, 4th August 2017. There were 12 contestants who fought for the crown. They were scored based on their dressing, stage performance, traditional attire, eloquence, self-confidence and grasp of current affairs.